Exclusive Sneak Peek

At this year's AAO Annual Session, Ormco is unveiling Ormco Custom, which represents the brand's end-to-end digital solution providing a suite of products offering both personalization and profitability. It includes Insignia Ai, Lythos Digital Impression System as well as integration of custom and traditional Ormco AOA Lab products.

Damon Clear2, also featured at the Ormco booth, is the only 100 percent clear self-ligating bracket with a new ultra-precision slot offering two times the rotational control. An aesthetic solution for image-conscious adults and teens, Damon Clear2 provides the performance and control needed to treat a wide variety of cases. With the new Damon Custom, doctors—for the first time ever—are able to supply the exact prescription needed to best treat each individual patient case.
